

The Who - Live at Leeds!

The Live at Leeds special first aired in 2007 to celebrate the seminal live album by The Who, Our lucky listeners will get another chance to hear the award winning documentary hosted by Rick Wakeman. The documentary features contributions from all the people that helped to make the amazing event happen, PLUS the man himself Pete Townshend talks about this historic recording and gig.

The documentary won at the 2008 New York Radio Awards – International Best Music Special.

This special will air only twice on Saturday 6th February at 6pm and Thursday 11th February at 11pm. (UK Times)

If you would like to review this show please contact jon@planetrock.com

For further information on Planet Rock please contact:

Jon Norman at Planet Rock on 020 7453 1639 or jon@planetrock.com